Buyer's Personal Statement:

Dear Seller, I am writing to express my sincere interest in purchasing your property at the address listed above. This home stands out to me because of its unique charm, location, and the potential it holds for creating long-lasting memories. I have carefully considered all aspects and am confident in my offer. Please know that I intend to care for and respect this property as if it were my own home.

Legal and Purchase Terms:

This letter and the offer contained herein are subject to the execution of a mutually acceptable purchase agreement. The Buyer affirms that this offer is made in good faith and that funds for the purchase and deposit are or will be available upon acceptance. The Buyer acknowledges that this letter is not a binding contract for sale but is meant to accompany the purchase agreement as an expression of intent. All applicable inspections, disclosures, and legal requirements will be fulfilled in accordance with United States law and the governing jurisdiction. The Buyer agrees to hold harmless the Seller and Seller's agents for any statements or representations made in this letter that are not expressly included in the purchase agreement.

Acknowledgment and Signature:

By signing below, the Buyer acknowledges that this letter accurately reflects their intentions and understanding related to the purchase offer. This letter may be used by the Seller to better understand the Buyer’s motivations but does not alter or supersede any terms contained in the formal purchase agreement.
